

OUTSTANDING STUDENT ORGANIZATION ADVISOR AWARD

The Office of Campus Life annually recognizes the dedication of student club/organization advisors with its Advisor of the Year award. We are seeking nominations of qualified individuals to be presented with this award at the Student Awards and Recognition Reception on May 1, 2009.

Eligibility:

- The nominated individual must serve as the official student club/organization advisor or co-advisor to a registered/recognized student club/organization of Richland Community College.
- The student club/organization must be a registered/recognized student organization in good standing with the Richland Student Senate and the Office of Campus Life.

Criteria:

Selected recipient(s) must exhibit the following qualities:

1. Display a genuine concern and commitment to the club/organization(s) they advise.
2. Effectively motivate members to perform to their fullest potential within the organization.
3. Serve as a resource for the student club/organization as an official representative for the college.
4. Provide significant service to the campus through outstanding achievements.

Recipients will be selected by a committee appointed by the Student Senate.

 Nomination form is due no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, April 22, 2009, at the Office of Campus Life (C131).

 Incomplete nominations will not be accepted.
