

Campus Life Individual Awards Information Form

The Campus Life individual awards were established with the express purpose of recognizing the unique contributions of students to the Richland Community College campus.

General Information

1. Anyone affiliated with Richland Community College and its surrounding community members (student, faculty, administration, staff, alumni, etc.) may nominate a student.
2. Only students who have attended Richland Community College in the academic year of 08-09 are eligible.
3. No limit is placed on the number of nominations submitted by one person, however, each nomination form must be submitted separately for each individual award.

(NOTE: Students nominated for the 'Emerging Leadership Award', 'Peer Mentor and Supporter Award', 'Outstanding Volunteer of the Year Award', or the 'Campus Impact Award' are automatically nominated for the 'Richland Student Leadership Award' and the 'Richland Student Core Values Award'.)

4. Nominations for all awards are due Wednesday, April 22, 2009 to the Office of Campus Life (C131).

Award Descriptions

The Richland Student Leadership Award is presented to one outstanding Richland Community College student who has proven their skills to exceed expectations in leadership development, service and education within the community. This award is co-sponsored with Campus Life by the Richland Community College Foundation. The recipient of the Student Leadership award receives $100.00 on behalf of the Richland Community College Foundation.

The Richland Student Core Values Award is presented to one Richland Community College student who has demonstrated great achievements that capture the attributes embedded within Richland Community College's core values of commitment, respect, excellence, accountability and diversity.

The Emerging Leadership Award recognizes students who have demonstrated significant progress toward achieving their leadership potential through campus and community involvement.

The Peer Mentor and Supporter Award recognizes those students who have displayed values of encouragement and support to other students' academic and ethical choices inside and outside the classroom, and promotes campus involvement among peers.

The Outstanding Volunteer of the Year Award recognizes those students who have made significant contributions demonstrating extraordinary commitment in their co-curricular activities which enhance our community.

The Campus Impact Award is given to students who have been actively engaged in representing Richland Community College's core values of commitment, respect, excellence, accountability and diversity. Whose contributions of time, creativity, energy and resources have enriched, sustained and impacted the campus community.
