Any items that exceed limits or do not comply with copyright law or library procedure will be returned via inter-campus mail.

1. Personal materials (such as books or videos) may be placed on reserve.
   a. Staff will label, theft strip, and barcode all personal materials.
   b. Be sure your name is on your materials, and please do not place valuable or irreplaceable items on reserve.
   c. The library will not be responsible for missing items.

2. Items that will NOT be put on reserves.
   a. Items that have been borrowed through inter-library loan (ILL).
   b. Items that are “homegrown” (i.e. a show that was recorded off TV)
   c. Photocopies of an original work not owned by the either the library or the instructor.
   d. Photocopies that make up more than 10% of the original work. (i.e. book or magazine, An entire article can be put on reserve provided it isn’t more than 10% of the publication.)
   e. More than two (2) photocopies of any items that the original is owned by either the library or the instructor.

3. Materials will not be shared between instructors without written permission from the faculty member placing the item on reserve.

4. Library staff will NOT accept verbal messages from students about permissions to use the materials.

5. Most materials require 2-4 days processing time. By submitting your reserve lists early and/or gathering materials from library shelves, you may shorten the processing time.

6. Reserve materials are in library staff area and are not available for general browsing. There is a reserve folder available at the circulation desk with items listed by Instructor/class #

7. Library staff will follow the instructions on this form.
